

Quiz

1 Read the list of details from the article.

1. In a speech in August 2016, with U.S. citizens struggling to make ends meet, Trump indirectly criticized people benefiting from DACA. "We want our children to be Dreamers, too," he said.
2. Soon, Republican state leaders who are against immigration tried to force him to do it. They said that DACA is against the U.S. Constitution, and Dreamers are illegal and threaten American jobs and culture.
3. Ken Paxton, the attorney general of Texas, threatened to sue the federal government. He said he would go ahead with the lawsuit if the government didn't cancel DACA by September 5.
4. Washington state Attorney General Bob Ferguson said Trump's decision to end DACA was "outrageous" and "not right."

Which two details taken together provide the BEST evidence to support the idea that Trump faced pressure from other lawmakers to end the DACA program?

- (A) 1 and 2
- (B) 1 and 4
- (C) 2 and 3
- (D) 3 and 4
- 2 Which section from the article BEST highlights the idea that Trump wants to change other immigration policies in addition to ending DACA?
- (A) "What did Trump announce?"
- (B) "What has Trump said about Dreamers?"
- (C) "Why were Republican state attorneys general suing Trump over DACA?"
- (D) "Which states announced plans to sue Trump over his decision to rescind DACA?"
- 3 What is the MAIN reason the author includes the section "Who supports DACA?"
- (A) to show that only a few groups of people want to keep DACA
- (B) to show that DACA is approved by diverse groups of people
- (C) to show that DACA has positively affected the lives of many Dreamers
- (D) to show that the government is trying to find an alternative to DACA

4 Read the introduction of the article [paragraphs 1-5].

HOW does the introduction introduce the MAIN idea of the article?

- (A) It describes the role of DACA and how it has affected many Dreamers. It also introduces the actions Democratic leaders plan to take in an attempt to preserve DACA.
- (B) It explains the Trump administration's recent decision regarding DACA, and introduces the questions that the remainder of the article will address.
- (C) It details the reasons why the Trump administration was unhappy with the DACA program, and introduces the legislation that Democrats plan to introduce to replace it.
- (D) It relays the announcement that the DACA program will be ending in the near future, and introduces the statements made by Trump that the remainder of the article will examine.